Additional Comments:

Collin is a motivated student in my Econ 2010 (Principle Micro) class. He received a A+ grade in a very challenging course I design. He is an independent thinker as well: he always ask questions that are meaningful and out-of-box. He respond ~~actively~~ class actively. I enjoy discussing economic problem with him outside of class as well.

All in all, Collin is a really intelligent and hard working person. I highly recommend him for this ^{award.}
